

1H//650095(039)

Connecting International Law
with Public Law

The Public Law of Gender

From the Local to the Global

Edited by

Kim Rubenstein

Katharine G. Young

CAMBRIDGE

CONTENTS

List of Contributors page xi

Series Editors' Preface xix

Editors' Preface xxi

Introduction: A Public Law of Gender? 1

KATHARINE G. YOUNG

PART I Constitutional Design and Gendered Outcomes

1. Feminisms and Constitutions 43

VICKI C. JACKSON

2. Deference and Deferral: Constitutional Structure and the Durability of Gender-Based Nationality
Laws 73

KRISTIN A. COLLINS

3. Structural Remedies and the One Million Pesos:
On the Limits of Court-Ordered Social Change
for Internally Displaced Women in Colombia 99

JULIETA LEMAITRE AND KRISTIN BERGTORA
SANDVIK

PART II Constitutional Design in a Global Setting: The Challenge of the Local

4. Customary Law, Constitutional Law, and Women's Equality 123

SUSAN H. WILLIAMS

5. Customising Equality in Post-Conflict
Constitutions 147

LAURA GRENFELL

6. Gender Equality in International Law and Constitutions: Mediating Universal Norms and Local Differences 170

VIJAYA NAGARAJAN AND ARCHANA PARASHAR

7. Law as a Placeholder for Change? Women's Rights and Realities in Afghanistan 195

SARI KOUVO AND COREY LEVINE

PART III Localising Participation and Voice through Law

8. Polygamy: Who Speaks for Women? 219

BEVERLEY BAINES

9. In Her Own Voice: Oral (Legal) History's Insights on Gender and the Spheres of Public Law 246

KIM RUBENSTEIN

PART IV Governance, Representation and Gendered Measures

10. Good Governance, Gender Equality and Women's Political Representation: Ideas as Points of Disjuncture 273

SHARON BESSELL

11. Women in Government/Governance in New Zealand: A Case Study of Engagement over Forty Years 296

MARGARET WILSON

12. Equality Without Freedoms? Political Representation and Participation of Women in Vietnam 318

HUONG NGUYEN

13. Gender, Justice and Statistics: The Case of Poverty Measurement 344

SCOTT WISOR

PART V Governance, Equality and Nondiscrimination

14. Gender and Racial Discrimination in the Formation of Groups: Tribal and Liberal Approaches to Membership in Settler Societies 367

KIRSTY GOVER

15. Rethinking the Australian Model of Promoting
Gender Equality 391

DOMINIQUE ALLEN

16. Gender, Governance and the Defence of the Realm: Globalising Reforms in the Australian
Defence Force 413

SUSAN HARRIS RIMMER

PART VI Global Governance and the Precepts of Public Law

17. Feminisms, Pluralisms, and Transnationalism: On CEDAW and National Constitutions 437

VICKI C. JACKSON

18. Governing Victims' Redress and Gender Justice
at the International Criminal Court 465

LOUISE CHAPPELL

19. International Organisations as Employers: Searching for Practices of Fair Treatment and Due Process
Rights of Staff 489

OSMAT A. JEFFERSON AND INNOKENTI EPICHEV

20. A Gender Critique of Accountability in Global Administrative Governance 514

ROHAN KAPUR AND KELLIN KRISTOFFERSON

21. Is This the Future We Want? An Ecofeminist Comment on the UN Conference on Sustainable Development Outcome
Document 538

KATE WILKINSON

Index 561