

1W/760772(039)

Editors:

Andris Sprūds, Māris Andžāns, Sandis Šrāders

The Rīga Conference Papers 2019

NATO at 70 in the Baltic Sea Region

Aaltola
Anthony
Daugulis
Derow
Gotkowska
Jermalavičius
Lanoszka

Lawrence
Leuprecht
Long
Lucas
Markedonov
Moens
Muti

Pernik
Rác
Rinkēvičs
Rostoks
Stoicescu
Šešelgyte
Turdeanu

Utkin
Vilpišauskas
Vizgunova
Viķe-Freiberga
Waugh
Wieslander

LATVIAN INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Contents

Note by the director of the Latvian Institute of International Affairs Andris Sprūds	5
Address to the Participants of the Rīga Conference 2019 Edgars Rinkēvičs	6
Preface. NATO at 70 in the Baltic Sea Region Vaira Vīķe-Freiberga	8
THE TRANSATLANTIC LINK AND THE BALTIC SEA REGION	15
Leveraging the NATO Enhanced Forward Presence Two Years on Christian Leuprecht, Alexander Lanoszka, Jayson Derow and Karolina Muti	16
NATO's Place in Canada's Interest-Focused and Rules-Based International Order Alexander Moens, Joseph Waugh and Cornel Turdeanu	33
The US-Polish Enhanced Partnership to the Region's Benefit? Justyna Gotkowska	43
THE BALTIC DEFENCE	53
The Baltic Sea in Peace, Crisis and War: Time to Get More Serious About the Maritime Domain? Tomas Jermalavičius and Tony Lawrence	54
Air Defence Challenges and Prospects of the Baltic States Tony Lawrence	65
Deterring Russia in the Baltics Toms Rostoks	74
NATO AND RUSSIA	82
Relations between NATO and Russia from the Perspective of the Baltic states Kalev Stoicescu	83
NATO and Russia: The Future of a Relationship in Tatters Sergey Utkin	93
Russia's Approaches to the Post-Soviet Conflicts and their Implications for the West Sergey Markedonov	103

The Political and Military-strategic Impact of Arms Control Regime Failure on the Baltic Sea Region Ian Anthony	112
A Key Russian Asymmetric Capability Damaged: the “Losharik” Accident and its Strategic Implications András Rácz	122
NATO AND OTHER PLAYERS – TOWARDS INTEROPERABILITY OR COMPETITION	135
The EU and NATO in Baltic Sea Region: Effective Partnership or Unnecessary Competition? Margarita Šešelgytė	136
In the Grey Zone: Sweden as an Informal Ally to NATO Anna Wieslander	147
New Developments of the China-Central and Eastern European Countries’ Cooperation and their implications for the Baltic Region Jing Long	153
NATO AND THE (RE)EMERGING ISSUES	162
Emerging Ecosystems of Power – Logics and Vulnerabilities in the Nordic-Baltic Region Mika Aaltonen	163
Women in the Latvian and Estonian Military: NATO’s Poster Students? Elizabete Vizgunova	175
NATO’s Continued Relevance in Cyber Defence Piret Pernik	187
NATO’s Relevance in Energy Security Ramūnas Vilpišauskas	203
Growing into Complexity, Growing into Confidence: Strategic Communication and NATO Mārtiņš Daugulis	210
Postface. NATO in a Turbulent Future Environment Edward Lucas	218
Authors	227