

1M//819542(039)

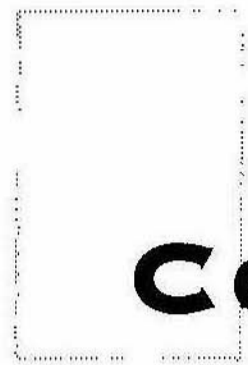

GLOBALIZATION & MIGRATION

A WORLD IN MOTION

ELIOT DICKINSON

CONTENTS

List of Tables and Maps	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii
1 The Onset of a Borderless World	1
The Most Intimate form of Globalization	4
Migration Nation	8
Explaining Global Migration	11
North and South, Core and Periphery	16
Conclusion	19
2 Historical-Structural Origins of Global Migration	21
We Are All Immigrants	23
The Quest for Material Benefits and Profit	25
Trans-Atlantic European Migration	31
An American Empire	36
Slavery	39
The Scramble for Africa	44
From Colonialism to Neocolonialism	48
Conclusion	52
3 The Global South	55
Mexico and NAFTA	57
Central America and CAFTA	66
The Middle East: Syria	72

VIII  CONTENTS

North Africa: Libya	76
South Asia: Capitalism Versus the Climate in Bangladesh	78
Brain Drain	82
Conclusion	84
4 The Global North	87
Europe	89
Brain Gain	113
Climate Change	115
Conclusion	116
5 The Coming Transformation	119
The Gathering Storm	121
What Is to Be Done?	126
Conclusion	131
Notes	135
Recommended Readings	159
Index	171
About the Author	181

TABLES AND MAPS

Table 1.1.	Projected Population of the World and Major Areas, 2015, 2030, 2050, and 2100	9
Table 1.2.	International Migrant Stock by Development Level and Major Area, 1990–2010	9
Table 1.3.	Migration Theories Across Disciplines	13
Table 2.1.	African Immigrants, by Period and Place of Arrival	40
Table 2.2.	Political Division of Africa in 1914	46
Map 1.1.	The World's Main Mass Migration Routes	18
Map 3.1.	Migration Routes through Central America and Mexico	59
Map 3.2.	Migration Routes in Southeast Asia	81