

1W/845285(039)

WHAT'S THE BEEF?

THE CONTESTED GOVERNANCE OF

EUROPEAN FOOD SAFETY

edited by Christopher Ansell and David Vogel

---

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

I Introduction 1

1 The Contested Governance of European Food Safety Regulation 3
Christopher Ansell and David Vogel

II The Social and Economic Context 33

2 Taste, Traditions, and Transactions: The Public and Private
Regulation of Food 35
Frans van Waarden

3 Contentions over Food Safety: The Significance of Consumer
Trust 61
Unni Kjærnes, Arne Dulsrud, and Christian Poppe

4 Food Safety and the Structure of the European Food Industry 81
Thomas Bernauer and Ladina Caduff

5 Protesting Food: NGOs and Political Mobilization in Europe 97
Christopher Ansell, Rahsaan Maxwell, and Daniela Sicurelli

III Reforming National Food Safety Regulation 123

6 Is It Just about Trust? The Partial Reform of French Food Safety
Regulation 125
Olivier Borraz, Julien Besançon, and Christophe Clergeau

7 From Precautionary Bans to DIY Poison Tasting: Reform of the UK
Food Safety Regulation Regime    153

Henry Rothstein

8 Governance Reform of German Food Safety Regulation: Cosmetic or Real?    181

Bodo Steiner

IV The European Dimension    211

9 Regulating Food Safety Risks in the European Union: A Comparative Perspective    213

Grace Skogstad

10 Food Safety and the Single European Market    237

Alberto Alemanno

11 The Creation of the European Food Safety Authority    259

Laurie Buonanno

V The International Dimension    279

12 Protection or Protectionism? EU Food Safety and the WTO    281

Alasdair R. Young and Peter Holmes

13 Compatibility or Clash? EU Food Safety and the WTO    307

Christine Noiville

VI Conclusion    327

14 The Asymmetries of Governance    329

Christopher Ansell

References    351

List of Contributors    381

Index    383